

ALACER GOLD CORP.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS POLICY

As a leading mid-tier gold producer, Alacer Gold Corp. (the “Corporation”) is committed to undertaking its activities in a manner that encourages proactive and positive stakeholder engagement.

The Corporation and its directors, officers, managers and employees will:

- Comply with all applicable laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which the Corporation operates;
- Meet the requirements of applicable industry standards;
- Be transparent, ethical, fair and honest in dealings and treat other companies and individuals with respect;
- Respect and uphold fundamental human rights and the related culture, customs and values in dealing with those affected by the Corporation’s activities;
- Establish and maintain effective, regular communications and consultation with all stakeholders;
- Develop partnerships or relationships that foster sustainable development of the areas in which the Corporation operates by working with all relevant stakeholders;
- Educate all employees and contractors on appropriate cultural aspects and values within the countries and regions in which the Corporation operates;
- Ensure Corporation requirements and obligations in regards to community relations are clearly communicated to all contractors undertaking work on Corporation controlled sites;
- As part of the Corporation’s business planning and budgeting processes, include sufficient funding to implement this Community Relations Policy;
- Develop initiatives and programs that will enhance the social benefit of all communities in which operations interact;
- Identify and facilitate opportunities for stakeholders to participate in employment, training and business relationships with the Corporation.

(signed) “Rodney P. Antal”

Dated September 10, 2013

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Alacer Gold Corp.